

brainspark

DSM 5: 5-6 symptoms present before the age of 12, and have now been present for more than 6m in 2 or more life domains. The symptoms cause significant distress and loss of functioning, and are not better explained by other psychiatric disorders.